PRESIDENT MADE A CITIZEN OF THE ITALIAN CAPITAL

Impressive Ceremonies In Honor of American Guest

ROME, Friday, Jan. 3.—President Wilson became a citizen of Rome tonight. The ceremony took place in the historic capital, designed by Michael Angelo, and redundant with suggestions of ancient and medieval Rome. Assisting in the services were King Victor Emmanuel and Queen Helena, members of the Italian cabinet, members of the diplomatic corps, including Ambassador and Mrs. Thomas Nelson Page and municipal and military authorities.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, accompanied by the king and queen drove to the capital after the dinner at the quirinal.

At the conclusion of the ceremony in which he became a citizen of Rome, Mr. Wilson spoke as follows:

All of Northern Pacific's Troops Landed Safely

FIRE ISLAND, N. Y., Jan. 5.—Weary sailors manning the stranded transport Northern Pacific who shared with coast guards and the crews of rescue ships in the unparalleled task of sending safely ashore thru the breakers 2,500 well and wounded soldiers, climbed into their hammocks tonight free for the first time in four days, of anxiety over the safety of the army veterans homeward bound from Europe. The last of the troops aboard went over the side today.

The sun which cheered the liner's company today after the hours of mist, rain, snow and cutting wind, had hardly dropped below the horizon when the slender arc of a new moon appeared above a bank of red tinged clouds in the west, giving promise of fair weather tomorrow for the removal of half the grounded vessel's crew.

This undertaking will be a simple one compared with the dilemma of lowering helpless men from the towering decks of the liner and hoisting them aboard the hospital ship.

WILSON RECEIVED AT THE VATICAN

Rome, Jan. 4.—President Wilson today was received at the Vatican by Pope Benedict.

The president's arrival was announced by the master of the chamber to the pope who awaited the president in the throne room where two gilded arm chairs had been placed. The president was admitted immediately to the presence of the pope who was gowned in white.

London, Jan. 4.—According to the Central News correspondent at Rome the interview between President Wilson and Pope Benedict lasted half an hour. The great social problems of the day and general problems of peace were discussed, while Palestine and Armenia were touched upon.

The pope showed the president numerous telegrams which he had just received regarding the plight of the Armenians.

WILSON PRESENTED PICTURE BY POPE

ROME, Jan. 4.—(By The Associated Press.)—Pope Benedict today presented to President Wilson a handsome mosaic reproducing Guido Reni's famous picture of St. Peter. The mosaic was made in the vatican grounds by the ancient mosaic factory of the vaticano.

The mosaic has been valued at $40,000.

Cardinal Gasparri, the papal secretary of state presented President Wilson with two copies of the modification of the canon law compiled by Cardinal Gasparri. One copy is bound in white parchment and contains an autographed dedication to President Wilson. The other is in red leather and bears the following autograph:

"Homage to Princeton University from Pietro Cardinal Gasparri, vatican, Rome."

President Wilson thanked the pope and Cardinal Gasparri heartily for their gifts.

JAPAN WITHDRAWS TROOPS FROM SIBERIA

LONDON, Jan. 4.—Announcement that 24,000 Japanese troops will be withdrawn from Siberia is reported by a Tokio dispatch to the Express quoting an official statement issued by the Japanese war office on December 27. The statement according to the dispatch says that Japan intends to maintain henceforth only the smallest possible forces in Siberia.

"Public opinion here," says the dispatch, "deplores the withdrawal of allied observers. American as well as British speak bitterly of intervention as being, relatively a failure owing to disunity among the allies and their mutual jealousy."

170 GERMAN SUBMARINES FOUND

LONDON, Jan. 4.—One hundred and seventy submarines, all under construction were found when the inter-allied naval commission visited Germany to make arrangements for the carrying out of the terms of the armistice, according to newspapers here. The U-boats, it is said, will be turned over to the allies.

HEARING POSTPONED.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—An announcement was made today that upon Solicitor General King's motion, arguments which were to have been heard next week in the supreme court in the contempt case growing out of investigation by a federal grand jury at New York of primary campaign expenses of Senator-elect Truman H. Newberry of Michigan would be postponed temporarily on account of the inability of counsel for the defendants to appear.

"The light that shone upon the summit now seems to shine almost at our feet and if we lose it, it will only be because we have lost faith. A breath of hope and of confidence has come into the hearts and minds of men."

"I would not have felt at liberty to come away from America if I had not felt that the time had arrived when, forgetting local interests and local ties and local purposes, men should unite in this great enterprise that will bring the free men together as a body of brethren and a body of free spirits."

"I am honored sir to be taken into this ancient comradeship of the citizenship of Rome."

POLES WANT FOOD AND ASSISTANCE

Paris, Jan. 4.—Four delegates representing General Pilsudski, the military head of the Polish government have arrived here. It is added that the principal object of their visit is to obtain recognition of the Polish state and to secure military assistance and food which they declare are urgently needed.

FIVE PERSON'S KILLED, SLAYER TAKES OWN LIFE

Jealousy Results In Whole Family Being Wiped Out

OMAHA, Neb., Jan. 4.—Five persons were murdered after which the slayer committed suicide in the midst of his victims in a farm house on Holman's Island in the Missouri river, about eight miles northwest of Little Sioux, Iowa, early Friday night. A whole family was wiped out. The dead are:

Wilbur Johnson, farmer, in whose home the crime was committed.

Mrs. Wilbur Johnson, his wife, Johnson, their eight year old son.

Mrs. Mabel Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnson.

Baby Jones, two year old child of Mrs. Jones.

"Bill Barnes," aged 45, believed to be the murderer.

All were apparently killed instantly by a shotgun in the hands of Barnes, who used the same weapon to blow out his own brains. Barnes had but one arm.

Neighboring Find Bodies

The bodies were found by neighbors who called at the Johnson home Saturday morning. There was no evidence of struggle.

Infatuation for Mrs. Jones, who ran away with him and later left him and refused to return is believed to have been the motive for the crime.

Barnes, said to be a former Omaha man, appeared several months ago at the Johnson farm, giving his occupation as a life insurance salesman. He paid marked attention to Mrs. Jones, it is reported, but his actions were strongly discouraged by her parents.

Mrs. Jones accepted the advances of Barnes, and eventually went with him to Kansas City, a year ago last fall and later to Dakota, taking her baby with her. In Dakota, however, she left Barnes and returned to her parents a short time ago. Barnes followed her back to the Johnson home where he was refused admittance. It is presumed he reached the Johnson farm about eight o'clock in the evening, as Mr. and Mrs. Johnson and their son had not yet retired. He fired two shots thru the window killing Mr. and Mrs. Johnson outright. He then reloaded the gun, entered the house and shot dead the little boy as the latter stood aghast at the slaughter of his parents, apparently too frightened to flee.

Shoots Mother and Babe

Barnes proceeded to the bedroom of Mrs. Jones, who with her baby had retired. He fired two charges at Mrs. Jones, one taking effect in the head and one in the chest, while a single shot took the baby's life. It was necessary for him to reload the shotgun while committing this final double murder.

The assassin then returned to the kitchen where he sat down in a chair, reloaded the gun for the third time, and removed one of his shoes. He tied a string to the trigger of the shotgun and to his great toe, placed the muzzle of the gun between his eyes and pulled the trigger with his toe. His body was found still sitting in the chair with the top of the head blown off.

The bodies were discovered early Saturday morning by a neighbor who reported to the officials.

PRESENTATION OF TESTIMONY CONCLUDED

CHICAGO, Jan. 4.—Presentation of testimony in the trial of Congressman-elect Victor L. Berger of Milwaukee and four other Socialist leaders charged with conspiracy to violate the espionage law was concluded today and the case will be given to the jury next Tuesday afternoon. Argument of counsel to the jury will begin Monday morning. Each side has been allotted five and a half hours for closing argument.

District Attorney Charles F. Clyne will open for the government and will be followed by Attorneys William A. Cunea, Henry C. Cochems and Seymour Stedman for the defense. Assistant District Attorney Joseph B. Fleming will close the arguments on behalf of the government.

They will be tried by a special court.

An Associated Press dispatch from Munich under date of December 30 reported that seventeen prominent men, including one non-Bavarian duke were arrested last Sunday evening by the police while engaged in a conference at a leading hotel in Munich. After being detained a few hours all but two of the men were released.

The two were a publisher and a banker, accused of organizing a force against the government. A Berlin dispatch Friday reported that there has been some shooting in the streets of Munich on New Year's eve, nine persons being wounded.

EAGLE BOATS A SUCCESS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—Commenting today on reports of high profits paid for construction of Eagle Boats by the Ford plant, Secretary Daniels said profits on these craft were smaller than for any other class of naval construction and very small in comparison with what the navy department was prepared to allow. No new type of boat ever fully realized the hopes pinned to it, he added, but official reports of trials of the first Eagles showed they were very satisfactory.

CONDITION OF BANKS

NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—The actual condition of clearing house banks and trust companies for the week (five days) shows that they held $1,550,120 reserves in excess of legal requirements. This is an increase of $106,733,780 from last week.

Mrs. Tom Clancy who has been ill with pneumonia is able to return to the home of her brother, Otis Hoffman.

Fierce Fighting Taking Place In Archangel

German Policy Outlined By New Foreign Minister

ARCHANGEL, Friday, Jan. 3. (By the Associated Press.)—Fighting about the village of Kadish, which was recaptured by the American forces on December 30 is continuing. The American artillery has moved up slightly and is almost continually shelling the enemy. There have been numerous outpost encounters in the thick woods bordering on the Petergord road.

The Bolshevik force outnumbers the Americans nearly three to one and is seeking to outflank them, but the American soldiers, tired after five days and nights of fighting in the extreme cold are bearing up splendidly. The battle is largely a question of endurance in the arctic weather.

Now and then in the course of the fighting the Americans encounter hidden machine gun positions in the woods, or along the road. One of these held out for five hours, until the Americans, advancing step by step or crawling in the snow, succeeded in flanking it.

THE TRUTH ABOUT

THE CAZR.
One useful thing that President Wilson could do while abroad is to find out the real facts about the former Russian czar. About once a week comes the report from overseas that the former czar is still alive, and then another story, purporting to give the alleged facts about his execution. Perhaps the president can send Mr. Creel or someone else of equal gifts to get at the real truth.

DELAYED FACTS.

Now it is said that the real motive of the government for taking over the cables was to hasten along the transmission of the overseas casualty lists. Certainly if that was the motive Mr. Burleson did not accomplish his intended purpose, for it is common knowledge that the casualty lists now published from day to day are weeks and weeks old. With the system of publicity authorized, relatives of injured men do not receive news with any promptness and even after that, it is still other weeks before the lists are authenticated for publication.

A CHANCE FOR ## PHILANTHROPY.

A notice from the Social Service league indicates that there are children in Jacksonville who are not comfortably clothed for school during these cold days. Certainly this is an opportunity for philanthropic work very much worth while. In this, a city that prides itself on its special educational advantages, certainly no child should be allowed to remain away from school because of a lack of shoes and clothing. The appeal of the league for aid in meeting this need should find a ready and generous response.

capable increase in the number of men seeking employment. A few months ago when advertisements were published for clerks or other workers there were sometimes no replies and at others only a few. Now an advertisement of a position open brings many applicants. In recent weeks, too, the first "tourists" seen in more than a year have stopped at kitchen doors to ask for a "hand out" or cast off clothing.

Certainly those who really want work can still find it, but the question of the labor supply is certainly easing up.

TIGHTENING UP ON MEXICO

There is an insistent demand now in congress that Mexico be made to pay up her financial obligations to citizens of the U. S. It seems this question of repayment to Americans for loss of property in Mexico has been handled with some laxness because of the greater questions which were pressing for a solution.

Now that the "big job" has been done, due attention can be given to Carranza and his associates. There is a question about the propriety of meting out punishment because of the illy conduct of Mexico for Germany, but the Mexicans can just as well understand once and for all, that this country will not stand for any foolishness like that in the past.

THE DRAFT BOARDS

In his recent report Adjutant General Dickson gives the interesting facts about the various local boards in the state and comments upon the splendid service the board members have given.

"Of the 227 original local boards 138 still retain their original personnel. The remaining 89 boards had 222 changes in personnel. Of the 222 changes in personnel only ten were occasioned by the necessity or requested resignation. The remaining 212 changes were voluntary and for reasons which met with the approval of both the state headquarters and the president. Of the eight district boards in the state only 15 changes were made voluntarily. In the 34 medical advisory boards a large number of changes were made on account of many of the original personnel having entered the medical reserve corps for the federal service, but not one of the many changes were made as a result of necessary removal.

"Commenting upon this service the adjutant general said in his report: 'Space forbids that I attempt to express, except in the briefest way, the splendid work of the boards and associated agencies in this wonderful work in Illinois. With splendid enthusiasm, great personal sacrifice, lofty ideals and high patriotism, these men have labored and done their full duty to their state and nation.'

"It may, and will take some time to pass thru the reconstruction period in an industrial way but certainly there is already a per-

A WAR SHIP'S RECORD

TRAIN WILL BE PLACED ON TIME
Cap'd January 12 — Secured
Largely thru Efforts of Andrew Russel and John J. Reeve.

A graphic account of the war career of the one time great German liner, "Vaterland," now an American army transport known as the "Leviathan," which has carried more than 100,000 American soldiers to France, was recently given by one familiar with the record. Special praise is given to the ship's chaplain, Father McDonald.

"Standing at sunset each day on the navigation bridge of the Leviathan, Father McDonald, ranking as a lieutenant, uttered a prayer. After seventeen years in the navy he has come to be known as 'Father Duffy of the Navy.' He has been on the Leviathan ever since she has been in the transport service.

"At the moment the bugler sounded the sunset call, the entire 10,000 aboard on her last trip over, stood at attention. Many could not hear, but all knew the words the chaplain was speaking. No lurking danger of the sea could deter Father McDonald from offering his sunset prayer on the ocean wave. All stood at attention, not knowing but that the next moment might send them all to a watery grave. This chaplain granted absolution, in the name of Christ the Saviour, to every soul aboard that ship, whether Protestant, Catholic Jew or agnostic. And while there might be at the moment swimming about the Leviathan, wicked war monsters ready to throw their exploding fangs into her sides, Father McDonald never failed at sunset to offer this prayer—'My Jesus, Have Mercy,' and granted general absolution.

"Regular Sunday services also were held by this worthy chaplain, and to those who were ill and could not attend he gave prayer books and rosaries, and to the dying he administered the last rites and gave what consolation was possible.

"Father McDonald was obliged to work night and day, but he never faltered. Ninety-six soldiers died of influenza. 2,000 troops were transferred to hospitals when the ship arrived at Liverpool."

1919.

Oh, gay young year, I'm glad you're here, so full of hopeful promise! The years we've had were pretty bad, and punk, so help me Thomas. I look behind and to my mind there comes a hateful vision; I look ahead and feel no dread—the prospects are Elysian. Oh, blithe '19, I wot and ween, and wist and bet a shiner, no year on earth since Adam's birth has had a send-off like. For years we've heard the dreary word of blood and smoke and battle, and in our dreams heard dying screams and bones of dead men rattle. And it appeared, and all men feared that war would last forever, and evermore we'd hear of gore and murderous endeavor. But now we cheer the bright new year that is not charged with sight, that brings no threat of fields blood wet; and hero soldiers dying. New year, brave year, I'm glad you're here, I am as glad as any; oh, may your stay be always gay, and may your months be many!

One reason he assigned for the great success of the American troops was that they were fresh, well equipped and had lots of old American "pep."

He remarked that the Germans said the Americans were easy to hit but hard to stop. It was this quality of going as long as they were on their feet that took the heart out of the Germans after a few battles.

Asked about the effect on the intense barrages that were laid down by the opposing armies before an attack, Lieut. Gary said:

Howard Pennell of Murrayville and Miss Ada B. Mathews of Manchester were united in marriage Saturday evening at 8 o'clock by Dr. A. E. Speaking of the various fighting troops Lieut. Gary paid high tribute to the Australians. He said they were the greatest fighters in the world. He also paid high compliment to the cockney company from the slums of London that was the supporting company on his right on one of the battle fields.

Often before reaching the fighting zone Lieut. Gary said he heard the phrase "war weary." He said that he never realized what it meant until he saw the French and English troops on the battle front. Constant fighting amidst intense bombardment had gotten their nerves. The same thing he said, was true of the Germans.

The people of Springfield are anxious to have Wesleyan of Bloomington moved to the state capital. To that end they are offering the Wesleyan $50,000 cash to be put into buildings and a campus of eighty acres situated near the fair grounds, a president's house, a guarantee of immunity from expense of litigation and $10,000 annually for five years for current expenses. Also an option on a tract of 57 acres immediately opposite the proposed campus; said tract to be sold at a moderate figure and if the college goes there the ground could be platted in lots and sold at a fine profit.

Question's Outlined

The following questions are to be considered at the conference and have been compiled in printed form for presentation:

1. A question of prime importance is whether our down-state policy shall be to have one central college, thoroughly equipped and endowed at some central place as Springfield, rather than to continue the five smaller institutions as heretofore.

2. Whether, in case the policy that seems wise shall be to continue the group of small colleges, it may not be wise to reduce the number to one institution in each conference, or possibly to two for the three conferences, and in this connection to consider whether some readjustment of conference boundary lines might not be thought wise.

3. What should be the scope, function and limitation and characters of the institutions in each case?

4. It was thought that there would be a unanimous agreement that the Wesley Foundation should be a permanent part of our work and put on an adequate basis as to endowment and equipment.

5. The special relation of the Illinois Woman's College to any reconstructive plan would need most careful consideration.

6. The permanent place of the Church College in a National system of education, will clearly be a factor to be considered. What the probable permanent function of such colleges may be, is of the utmost importance.

7. Should we plan at all for secondary education under church auspices, either in the form of the academy, of the boys' school or the girls' school or in the form of collegiate institutes or junior colleges?

8. Is it possible that some one of the institutions such as the one at Onarga might be permanently used as a school for orphaned children, or for the homeless, or be used in connection with the Chicago Missionary work in some permanent form? Several suggestions in that direction have been made from time to time.

9. In case any of the present properties shall be abandoned, might they be used to advantage in the way of homes for retired ministers, or in the wider scope, homes for the aged? An important consideration would be what can be done with these properties so that they shall not be destroyed or shall not be left in such shape as to make those who have contributed to them in the past, feel that their benevolence has been ill-advised and fruitless, at least as regards its permanent use?

10. In case no federation can be effected and no reconstruction seems possible, do we still advise the removal of the Illinois Wesleyan to the State capital? If so, on what conditions?

11. In case more than one institution is recommended, will it be wise to have all the institutions operate under one central board, with local executive committees?

Needs of Woman's College

Dr. Harker will especially present the needs of the Woman's College. His ambition is not to make it a gigantic institution but one with a maximum of 300 strictly college students. Dr. Harker will emphasize these needs:

a. The first great need of the college is additional endowment.

b. To meet the need of increased salaries of teachers. It will be seen that 31 teachers receive $3,625, an average of only $1084 a year. The minimum average salary of the college faculty surely should not be less than $1500. This would increase the salary budget of the teachers to $49,500, an addition of $16,000. For this the college needs added endowment of $400,000.

To make the college fully efficient for 300 college students, what additional equipment does it need?

1. It needs an enlarged campus, as explained in question 13. The present campus is too small. It can be enlarged by the pur-

A STRENUOUS DAY

Friday morning Rev. E. L. Pletcher rose at half past four to take the early train for Petersburg where he was to hold a circuit ministers' meeting. He had no idea of the weather and didn't order a hack and was well used up when he reached the station. At Petersburg there was no hack at the station and he had a long, cold walk to the hotel and was about all in when he reached it. He soon rallied and conducted a successful meeting.

C. F. EHNE RETURNS

C. F. Ehne returned last evening from Detroit, where he has been engaged in Y. M. C. A. work quite ardently since Nov. 11. He left home Oct. 29th but did not get fully into the harness at once. His especial work was among some 700 men engaged in driving motor trucks from Detroit to Baltimore. Four trains were started out each week and about fifty trucks to a train and the sight was indeed grand. There would be about seventy men in a train and they would drive to Baltimore and return by railroad.

Mr. Ehne's especial work was in a sense fathering the men engaged in the work. Each Monday and Thursday they would have movies; a canteen where desirable articles were sold at cost; Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Years all the men received invitations to dinner with some good family and on Sundays from a dozen to fifty had such invitations.

Dec. 23 there was in a large building an electrically lighted Christmas tree, a dollar box for each man and the Grand Boulevard Congregational church sent 35 little folks who gave a fine entertainment after which a party and a dance was enjoyed.

Mr. Ehne said he had a fine set of men to deal with and he was much attached to them. Some 20,000 trucks were sent to Baltimore and 8,000 remain to be sent. Mr. Ehne does not expect to return.

It is understood that years ago a switch to the pumping station was planned and that the necessary grading was partially done at that time so the expense now would be reasonable. In these days a switch would mean an enormous saving, especially if the plan were followed of having the light and pumping station both at the south plant. It costs at least 50 cents a ton to haul coal by team and on the present city consumption of coal this would mean at least a saving of $5,000 or $6,000 a year. Furthermore, if the city had a switch of its own where coal could be shipped in car lots and dumped the coal could be bought from the mining companies and an additional saving made, which is now represented by the necessary dealers' profit since the coal is handled in wagon lots instead of car lots. With coal at present prices and if such a consolidated plant were in operation, a switch track would mean a saving of many thousands of dollars annually.

Merit in Plan.

The plan has some other advantages also. One of them is that the city lighting will require transmission of a much lesser voltage from the plant to the city than the voltage which would be required for transmission to the pumping station if the power plant were located at the present site.

Certainly the suggestion of a consolidated plant at the site of the proposed dam is one worth consideration.

WILL SEEK WATER PLANT SITE THRU LAW

LEGISLATIVE ACTION NECESSARY TO HELP LOCAL PROJECT ALONG.

Suggestion Made of Consolidated Light and Water Plant at South Station Site—Would Make Switch Possible and Save Annually Thousands of Dollars of Coal Haulage Cost.

At a recent meeting of the joint committee of citizens and city officials on water supply, Mayor Rodgers was authorized to go before the legislature with a bill purposing to secure the necessary site for the proposed dam and reservoir. This land, which adjoins the south pumping station, is the property of the state of Illinois.

It will be remembered that the title to this property could not be acquired without an act of the legislature. It was almost impossible to make any financial arrangements because of this difficulty, altho the state authorities were entirely willing to make a lease such an arrangement could not be effective for more than two years.

Want Assembly Action.

It was then determined that the best plan would be to wait until the session of the general assembly in 1919 and then bring the matter before the legislators in the form of a bill. The project will have the support of state authorities, who are thoroughly in accord with the plan for the proposed water improvement. In fact, the state has threatened unless Jacksonville does something toward providing a certain water supply that the state will be required to make some provision on its own account for water for the state institutions.

The joint committee feels that when once the matter of securing a site has been settled, that there will be a satisfactory basis for the essential financial arrangements.

In connection with the proposed water plant improvement George W. Davis recently made a suggestion which merits consideration. His thought would be to use the enlarged plant which may be established at the present site of the south plant, for lighting machinery as well as water supply. In the past, one of the plans favored has been to place electric pumps at the new station and generate the electric energy at the present municipal light plant, transmitting the power by cable.

Railroad Switch Possible.

In the reverse plan which Mr. Davis suggested, the whole electrical equipment would be at the south pumping station and the power necessary for lighting would be transmitted to the business and residence districts of the city. Very little additional equipment would be needed and the plan would simply involve the removal of the pumps from the north station and the dynamos and other power machinery from the municipal plant. The principal and great advantage in this plan would be that by the construction of a railroad switch from the C. and A. tracks to the pumping station, that the large expense of coal haulage could be saved.

It is understood that years ago a switch to the pumping station was planned and that the necessary grading was partially done at that time so the expense now would be reasonable. In these days a switch would mean an enormous saving, especially if the plan were followed of having the light and pumping station both at the south plant. It costs at least 50 cents a ton to haul coal by team and on the present city consumption of coal this would mean at least a saving of $5,000 or $6,000 a year. Furthermore, if the city had a switch of its own where coal could be shipped in car lots and dumped the coal could be bought from the mining companies and an additional saving made, which is now represented by the necessary dealers' profit since the coal is handled in wagon lots instead of car lots. With coal at present prices and if such a consolidated plant were in operation, a switch track would mean a saving of many thousands of dollars annually.

Merit in Plan.

The plan has some other advantages also. One of them is that the city lighting will require transmission of a much lesser voltage from the plant to the city than the voltage which would be required for transmission to the pumping station if the power plant were located at the present site.

WOMAN'S CLUB

BOARD MEETING
The executive board of the Woman's club held a meeting of more than usual interest Thursday afternoon at the Ayers bank.

The regular meetings have not been held on account of the epidemic. Now that the ban is being lifted the matter of re-opening the club was discussed and the date of the first meeting will be announced soon. Many splendid plans for the year's work were talked over and it was decided to arrange the meetings so that none of the programs will be omitted. This will be welcome news to all the club members, as the year book shows a treat for every month.

At the meeting Thursday the Board voted to adopt two French orphans, paying the amount of $74 at once, and also voted $10 a month to the Social Service League.

Alto the meetings of the club have been delayed the philanthropic work is going right on and it is urged for that reason that all members, not having paid their dues, remit promptly to Mrs. J. K. C. Pierson, treasurer. It is very important that this part of the club work may not be interrupted or delayed.

"With the Colors"

Letters of Interest from Morgan County Boys in the Country's Service.

From Glenn W. Randle

Rev. G. W. Randle has received the following interesting letter from his son, Glenn:

Army Salvage Depot,
Toul, France,
December 4, 1918.

Dear Folks:
Just received our first batch of mail since arrival in France. Received two letters; one from yourselves, dated October 20th, which you sent to Camp Johnston, and forwarded. Did you receive the card advising you of my safe arrival overseas? Up until the present time, have had very little opportunity to write as I wished to write, but now that the censorship has been almost entirely lifted, I am able to write a letter which is of more interest to you than heretofore.

Received our traveling orders at Camp Johnston, the twentieth day of October, and left there at noon of the 22nd for Camp Upton, New York. The trip was quite interesting in a good many respects. We went through historical old Philadelphia, also the capital, passing through the capital about 2:00 A.M. The entire city was dark, but bright moonlight, and the light shining on the white marble of the capitol building produced a sort of glow making it a very impressive and wonderful spectacle.

Arrived in Camp Upton the evening of October 26th, and proceeded to complete preparations for our overseas journey. In fact, the three days spent there were the busiest days of all for us, meaning myself and Sergeant Reeves, as well as Sergeant Wiltshire my supply sergeant. To tell the truth, we all worked. Finally preparations were completed Saturday afternoon. Received embarkation orders Saturday evening and entrained for Long Island City, Saturday, October 27th, at 9:30 A.M.

Upon arrival at Long Island City, transferred to ferry, thence to Brooklyn Pier No. 29, where lay His Majesty's Transport "Kursk." The Kursk was formerly a Russian ship but now in the British transport service, and manned by a British crew. We boarded her at 3:00 o'clock and were one of the first to arrive, consequently, the next thirty hours were busy ones for us. The commanding officer of troops detailed me as officer of the day, and officer of the guard, and I served in this double capacity for twenty-six hours straight. Had the members of my organization strung out all over the place as ships guard, and pier guard. Conditions were somewhat in a state of confusion at first, but after the second day out, managed to adjust them satisfactorily and affairs ran smoothly the balance of the Here!"

The camp to which we hiked was one of Napoleon's built by him and was one of his favorites, named "Pontanez Barracks." We spent a week there, sleeping on the bare ground in pyramidal tents. Most of the boys got severe colds as the ground was exceedingly damp. A good many are feeling the effects of it yet. In fact I have three of my men in the hospital and several others sick in quarters. Outside of a slight cold I am in the best of health. We left rest camp Sunday, November 17th enroute for Toul, Meurthe et Moselle, riding in the same kind of cars described in Mason's letters. 8 Chevaux 40 hommes. The country we passed through was picturesque to say the least, but the boys were mighty glad to get out and stretch their legs upon arrival in Toul on the morning of November 20th. Reported to chief salvage officer, quartered for the night, and next day loaded up in trucks and proceeded to our present location, which is Army Salvage Dump, three kilometers west of Toul. This is called a railhead salvage dump. Salvage of all description comprising practically all of Uncle Sam's property comes in to this dump from all over this area. It has been our job while attached here for duty to collect this salvage where it has been deposited by regimental salvage details. Salvage in this area has been pretty well cleaned up. Expect to be moved in the next few days to Thiaucourt which is about forty kilometers north. At present we are about thirty kilometers west of Nancy and about eighty kilometers southwest of Metz. Thiaucourt is right up where the old front used to be and expect to find some mighty interesting things in the next few weeks. Already the boys have found a number of souvenirs and of clothing, they surely have a liberal supply. If they take everything it will take a dozen trucks to move. As yet have not been able to get a German officers helmet. A good many of the land troops have lots of them, but are hanging on to them for dear life. The market price for a first-class Saxon helmet is about two hundred francs. May get one later on.

Have not been able to find out where Mason's division is, but think they are in Belgium.

Hope you are satisfactorily settled in your new location, and are pleased with it. Love to all the girls, and everything. Write me as often as possible.

Yours with love.

along the road we were hailed by an army of kids in nondescript costume. Every time we stopped, we were besieged by these children of France and either prevailed upon to buy candy, or to give them a penny, or a cigarette. It is quite a shock to see a youngster in kilts of about four years dragging away on a cigarette. They all do it. One very amusing incident of our hike along the road was to hear a crowd of little girls, about six years of age singing, "Hail! Hail! The Gang's all Here!"

ENJOY MOVIES UNDER UNUSUAL CONDITIONS

Odd Entertainment Provided By American Y. M. C. A. at Hospital in England—Water Treatment of Wounds Proves Most Efficacious.

London, December.—Not many fortunes in American small change are being spent by General Pershing's fighting men for they are not at all like the old style private in the days when army pay was $13 a month. This person, it will be recalled, lost his entire month's emoluments in fifteen minutes experimenting with craps, whereupon he shrugged his shoulders, commenting philosophically, "Oh, well, easy come—easy go."

The new type of Yankee enlisted man isn't like that. He is a saving young man and he sends a good share of his earnings home to help out his wife or any other partial dependents that he may leave. In fact, he sends back as much money as he spends on himself, if figures from Y. M. C. A. finance reports may be taken as a criterion. And they ought to be considered a fair indication of the way the pay goes.

In the first place the private makes an allotment of half his base pay by government order if he has anyone at home that needs it. And if he hasn't the government takes it and saves it for him. With very few exceptions, he also is the holder of a government insurance policy, which takes another bite out of his earnings. By the time his allotment and his insurance payments have been deducted, there isn't a great deal left. Yet from this little, he manages to save what in the aggregate amounts to a vast sum.

In four of the five huts from which figures are available in one Y. M. C. A. division, the soldiers sent more money home than they spent on themselves in buying canteen supplies during the month.

In the entire division the business office handled 1,166 francs of which 562,679 francs represented canteen sales and 505,570 francs remittances to the United States, or approximately half and half.

ALEX L. MITCHELL IN SERVICE IN FRANCE

Former Jacksonville Man Writes
Matt Wagner—Was Also in Spanish American War.

Matt Wagner received a postal card yesterday from Alex L. Mitchell a former Jacksonville resident who is now with the American forces in France.

Mr. Mitchell is attached to the cavalry branch of the service and enlisted in California and served on the Mexican border during the unpleasantness when the United States was trying to induce Huerta to salute the flag.

He is a son of the late James M. Mitchell a well known coal dealer and for a number of years a member of the city council and is a brother of Mrs. Ida Whitmer and Mrs. Charles M. Hopper.

When the United States declared war on Spain he enlisted as a member of old Company I and was stationed with his company at Chickamauga park. For a number of years he has been a resident of California where he impersonated a soldier in moving picture productions.

In his card Mr. Mitchell says that he has fought against Spain and Germany. That maybe the next will be Mexico or Japan or both. He believes he has a few good fights still left in him and will be ready when the call comes.

The biggest grocery sale ever held in this city, will be continued tomorrow. Don't miss it. ECONOMY Stores.

Men in France Send Good Part of Their Earnings Home to Dependents—Y. M. C. A. Finance Reports Fair Criterion as to Way the Pay Goes.

Story's Exchange, Loans and Insurance Real Estate

FARM PROPERTY

Now folks, listen, Story's Exchange says our land in this section is too cheap, compared with land selling north and east of us. Our land is too cheap as compared with prices of what it produces—corn, wheat, cattle and hogs, to say nothing of dairy and poultry products. Now are we right? October 1st, next, reflect back to this "ad" and you will know whether this is true or not. How do we know now? because people are selling farm products and putting the money in land. Again the boys are either home or will soon be here and they want to settle close to Dad and Mam wants them close to her. We have their orders now and find them difficult to fill. There is really quite a little scramble for farms for March first delivery. Now get busy.

(A) 160 acres, three miles from a good town on the C. & A., a good well improved combination stock and grain farm for $125.00 per acre.

(B) An excellent black prairie farm of eighty acres three miles from town with excellent improvements and a beautiful home. Price $300 per acre.

(C) One hundred sixty acres near the city mostly good farming land with plenty of improvements and thoroughly well fenced at $225.00 per acre.

(D) One hundred ten acres of land east of the city, two miles from elevator at $185.00 per acre.

(E) Our pet bargain for this week: Forty-six acres one mile from the elevator. This is a nice little home for a man of moderate means. A new six room house with cellar, cistern and concrete walks. New cow shed, horse barn, corn crib and other out buildings. Price $125.00 per acre. Now hurry.

Lester L. Koontz Writes to Mother.

Mrs. Arthur Wilner, 312 Howe street, Jacksonville, is in receipt of a very interesting letter from her son, Priv. Lester L. Koontz, in France. Stating the war is now over and he can tell of his trips since leaving Camp Logan, Texas, May 1st, 1918, for Camp Upton, Long Island on the 6th of May and stayed there until 2:30 on the 9th of May, then went to Hoboken, N. J. for the port of embarkment and went aboard the U. S. S. Lenape and left port at 5:15 p. m. on the 10th of May and had some trip across the water and landed in Brest, France on the night of May 23rd and got off the next day and went to an old prison camp and stayed there for 4 days and from there to Virecourt on the train and hiked from there to Boulain Court. We stayed a couple of weeks and went to Rendix and were issued gas masks and from there we went to Molliens Co Bois, and from there to the trenches in support and from there hiked to Querriex and went into support trenches a couple days then to Vigno Court and stayed there all night, went to Eau Court and there we threw live grenades and was on the M. G. range for 3 weeks and then back to Vigno court. All night there, again, and, back to Molliens Woods and slept in pup tents in mud about 6 inches deep, went from there to Vigno court and got on a train, went thru Paris to Legny and hiked from there to Gereport and got our motors and from there went to Rambent in a big camp in the woods where there was plenty of mud. Moved then to Longbent in a large dugout which held 300 men. And then went on anti-aircraft on Deadman's Hill, which is on the Meuse river, near Verdun, and from there to Convoys and went over the top and was a runner bringing up rations for the rest of the company. We were there about 3 days and moved back to Forges Wood, there a couple days went to Nixville Woods. Stayed there one day went to Ratentout, there two days and then went to Woebeg; there 2 days went in support trenches and there I with 18 others went on a 7 days furlough and having one fine time. Just imagine me sleeping in big feather beds and eating at table with white table linens. When I have been eating and sleeping on the ground or any place we could.

We are going to take a little trip up into the mountains tomorrow and take our dinner and expect to have some time.

The day I received your letter I just came out of the trenches, I left that night and a couple days ride on the train and some fine scenery that is part of the Alps Mts. and Southern, France. But our furlough didn't start until we got to Challes-Les-Sau, where we are now. I was down to Chambray and had some pictures taken. I will send them to you with some other scenes. You will see a little stripe on my left sleeve, that is my service stripe, which we get for 6 months service. We have large Y. M. C. A.'s here, library, billiard hall, to enjoy ourselves in. We had a nice time last night. A dance and some real American girls, they served ice cream after the dance. The first I had since I left home. We have everything we want. Are stopping at a nice hotel.

I took a trip up Mount Rorard, and it was some trip it was 5,070 feet up and we went upon a Cog wheel train when we got to the top we stood in France and saw Italy and Switzerland and also Mt. Blanc, which is the highest Mountain in Europe, the top covered with snow, like the Italian Alps which we saw in the distance. When we started up we thought we were going to have a bad day as it was pretty cloudy, but after we got up a couple of thousand feet we went thru the clouds and the sight of looking over the clouds can't be explained, as it was the most beautiful sight I have ever seen. And it alone was worth the trip. I bought some souvenirs on top of the mountain. That is, views from there. Since we are going to have a ball game here, we are going to Chambray, which is the next town. We have 3 towns in this area. Chambray, Aix, Les Bains and Challes-Les-Eaux.

Well, Dear Mother, it is Nov. 9th, 1918, and we are going to leave and go back to the trenches and give the other boys a chance to get some rest and pleasure. But we thought we needed exercise before we started back, so we started to climb a mountain which is about 3,000 feet and most all of the way straight up. If it hadn't been for the bushes on it I never would of made it. As it was, I was 2 1/2 hours going up, and only 40 minutes coming down. They have a church built on top of it, and a good road coming up on the other side of it. I don't think much of climbing mountains for exercise, as I am stiff as a board. I just returned to camp and as the war is over, we can have lights at night, and not afraid of aeroplanes dropping bombs.

We have been picking up old clothing and equipment on what once was No Man's Land and getting up in the barbed wire entanglements, and then wondering how we got there.

Just received your ever welcome letter and sure glad to hear from you and Dad. Well, we are about 10 miles from St. Michael, in a town by the name of Chalton. And some town not much left of it. We have been fighting where we first came over here on the Somme river and from there to the Meuse river we sure had some time, as there is a swamp on one side of the river and that is the side we were on, but we get across it and had a nice battle, but we had many casualties but I came out all right; never got a scratch. And I think that I am lucky as the shells were falling around us like rain. And we went thru it. I think we will be starting home before long, but no one seems to know. But I can't complain as we are living in a big house the Germans once occupied. Furnished nice and plenty of wood in the back yard as it was, an entrenchment and the post just fit our fire place, but the worst trouble is, to get someone to carry them in.

Are stopping at a nice hotel.

I took a trip up Mount Rorard, and it was some trip it was 5,070 feet up and we went upon a Cog wheel train when we got to the top we stood in France and saw Italy and Switzerland and also Mt. Blanc, which is the highest Mountain in Europe, the top covered with snow, like the Italian Alps which we saw in the distance. When we started up we thought we were going to have a bad day as it was pretty cloudy, but after we got up a couple of thousand feet we went thru the clouds and the sight of looking over the clouds can't be explained, as it was the most beautiful sight I have ever seen. And it alone was worth the trip. I bought some souvenirs on top of the mountain. That is, views from there. Since we are going to have a ball game here, we are going to Chambray, which is the next town. We have 3 towns in this area. Chambray, Aix, Les Bains and Challes-Les-Eaux.

Well, Dear Mother, it is Nov. 9th, 1918, and we are going to leave and go back to the trenches and give the other boys a chance to get some rest and pleasure. But we thought we needed exercise before we started back, so we started to climb a mountain which is about 3,000 feet and most all of the way straight up. If it hadn't been for the bushes on it I never would of made it. As it was, I was 2 1/2 hours going up, and only 40 minutes coming down. They have a church built on top of it, and a good road coming up on the other side of it. I don't think much of climbing mountains for exercise, as I am stiff as a board. I just returned to camp and as the war is over, we can have lights at night, and not afraid of aeroplanes dropping bombs.

We have been picking up old clothing and equipment on what once was No Man's Land and getting up in the barbed wire entanglements, and then wondering how we got there.

Just received your ever welcome letter and sure glad to hear from you and Dad. Well, we are about 10 miles from St. Michael, in a town by the name of Chalton. And some town not much left of it. We have been fighting where we first came over here on the Somme river and from there to the Meuse river we sure had some time, as there is a swamp on one side of the river and that is the side we were on, but we get across it and had a nice battle, but we had many casualties but I came out all right; never got a scratch. And I think that I am lucky as the shells were falling around us like rain. And we went thru it. I think we will be starting home before long, but no one seems to know. But I can't complain as we are living in a big house the Germans once occupied. Furnished nice and plenty of wood in the back yard as it was, an entrenchment and the post just fit our fire place, but the worst trouble is, to get someone to carry them in.

The day I received your letter I just came out of the trenches, I left that night and a couple days ride on the train and some fine scenery that is part of the Alps Mts. and Southern, France. But our furlough didn't start until we got to Challes-Les-Sau, where we are now. I was down to Chambray and had some pictures taken. I will send them to you with some other scenes. You will see a little stripe on my left sleeve, that is my service stripe, which we get for 6 months service. We have large Y. M. C. A.'s here, library, billiard hall, to enjoy ourselves in. We had a nice time last night. A dance and some real American girls, they served ice cream after the dance. The first I had since I left home. We have everything we want. Are stopping at a nice hotel.

Your Battery's Lease of Life

Your battery's usefulness depends on the way you treat it, but even the best of care won't make a poorly insulated battery stand up through a long busy life.

The Still Better Willard, with ordinary care gives a good deal more than ordinary service and a great deal longer than ordinary life.

One of the reasons why this is so is that this battery has Threaded Rubber Insulation—which indefinitely postpones need of re-insulating.

found humbly giving God the glory, and absolutely declining to attribute it to himself.

"Can that kind of a man win a war? Can a man who is a practical soldier be also a practical Christian? And is Foch that kind of a man? Let us see."

The secret of where Foch used to go for "strength and magical power to bring home the marvelous victories" was surmized by a California boy. It was not published by any organ of France, to show the world how "religious" its leader was:

"A California boy serving as a soldier in the American Expeditionary Forces in France, has recently written a letter to his parents in San Bernardino in which he gives, as well as anyone else could give, the answer to the question we ask."

"This American boy—Evans by name—tells of meeting General Foch at close range in France.

"Evans had gone into an old church to have a look at it, and as he stood there with bared head satisfying his respectful curiosity, a gray man with the eagles of a general on the collar of his shabby uniform also entered the church. No glittering staff of officers, no entourage of gold-laced aids, were with him; nobody but just the orderly.

"Evans paid small attention at first to the gray man, but was curious to see him kneel in the church, praying. The minutes passed until full three-quarters of an hour had gone by before the gray man arose from his knees.

"Then Evans followed him down the street and was surprised to see soldiers salute this man in great excitement and women and children stopping in their tracks with awe-struck faces as he passed.

"It was Foch. And now Evans of San Bernardino, counts the experience as the greatest in his life. During that three-quarters of an hour that the Generalissimo of the Allied armies was on his knees in humble supplication in that quiet church, 10,000 guns were roaring at his word on a hundred hills that rocked with death.

"When the hour came in which truth and right, charity, brotherly love, justice, and liberty were either to triumph or to be blotted out of the world, Christ came again upon the road to Damascus.

"Whoever does not realize this and see it clearly as a fact, he does not blunder stupidly.

"There will be a crowding company of critics when the war is ended and they will all be filled with the ego of their own conclusions. They will attempt to explain the genius of Foch with maps and diagrams. But while they are doing so, if you will look for Foch in some quiet church, it is there that he will be.

"Nor was it an unusual thing for General Foch to do. There is no day that he does not do the same thing if there be a church that he can reach. He never fails to spend an hour on his knees every morning that he awakes from sleep, and every night it is the same.

"Moreover, it is not a new thing with him. He has done it his whole life long.

"If young Evans could have followed the General on to headquarters, where reports were waiting him and news of victory upon victory was piled high before him, he would doubtless have seen a great gladness on the

General's face, but he would have seen no look of surprise there.

"Men who do that which Foch does have no doubts. When Premier Clemenceau, the old Tiger of France, stood on the battle-front with anxious heart, one look at the face of Foch stilled all his fears. He returned to Paris with the vision of sure and certain victory.

"The great agnostic statesman doubted but the Gray Man of Christ did not doubt.

"The facts, then, in the case are that when the freedom of the world hung in the balance the world turned to Foch as the one great genius who could save it against the Hun; and that Foch, who is perhaps the greatest soldier the world has produced, is, first of all, a Christian. * * *

"Young Evans, of San Bernardino, just an every-day American boy from under the shadow of old San Geronimo, spent nearly an hour with Foch in an old French church, and not even one bayonet was there to keep them apart.

"They represented the two great democracies of the world, but there is that old church they represented, jointly, a far greater thing—the Democracy of Christ. —Literary Digest.

"Evans had gone into an old church to have a look at it, and as he stood there with bared head satisfying his respectful curiosity, a gray man with the eagles of a general on the collar of his shabby uniform also entered the church. # Essex Beauty Sets New Auto Standard

The First Demonstrator Received by

D. N. James Automobile Co

Amazed Local Motorists by its Wonderful Performance

Setting new standards of automobile beauty, economy and performance, the first Essex demonstrating car received was the center of interest for local automobile enthusiasts this week.

The car, a five passenger phaeton, is attractively finished in satiny, dark green. It has the smart, square lines which have been so widely copied during the past year. In every detail of finish, from its deep luxurious upholstery to its slanting wind-shield, it is comparable only to the most costly cars on the market.

Possessing a flexibility and a seemingly unlimited reserve of power, the performance of this Essex is little short of miraculous. Tests have proved its ability to accelerate from a standing start to 20 miles an hour in 2 5-6 seconds and to 30 miles an hour in 5 2-3 seconds. No hill, however steep, can stop it and it rides over the roughest roads with the ease and comfort of a car of much greater weight.

Aside from its wonderful performance, one of the most distinguishing characteristics of the Essex is a notable simplicity of design. The engine is just a clean block of metal. Every excess part has been eliminated, making the task of the owner who cares for his own car a pleasure instead of a burden.

The use of shutters on the radiators eliminates the necessity of covering the hood with unsightly bandages to retain the heat in the winter and permits of the utmost ease of starting even in the coldest weather.

Nothing but the very finest of materials and workmanship are used throughout the Essex. Its design incorporates the experience gained thru ten years of achievement in building fine cars. The proof of this is to be seen in its performance which has amazed the motoring world. It is built in the Hudson factory in Detroit and is backed by one of the strongest organizations to be found anywhere in the industry.

In 1919 its popularity was such that 29,000 Essex were built and sold and the demand in all parts of the country today is greater than ever. Although the factory capacity has been greatly increased, the number we have been able to obtain is strictly limited and is far below what we needed to satisfy our customers.

UNUSUAL FEATURES IN CROP CONDITIONS

Interesting Review of Grain, Crop and Market Conditions Made by Well Known Expert.

N. W. Snow, crop expert for Bartlett, Traizer Company, and a well known authority on grain, crop and market conditions recently published the following informing review of the grain market for the past year:

The agricultural record of 1919 was marked by radical extremes of exalted expectation and decreased foreboding, but with a final outcome that furnished a striking evidence of American resources, both in soil and in the energy, industry and intelligent utilization of opportunity by America's farming population. In spite of labor shortage, and in the face of difficult climatic conditions, the volume of production was high.

Farmers Did Great Work.

The volume of farm production, when the true history of these troublous times is finally written will be hailed the factor that saves the world from post war political cataclysm.

Wheat. From a promise that at one time it seemed scarcely possible to exaggerate, the wheat crop steadily shrank until an outturn of only moderate proportions and very moderate quality was secured. Drought in many districts, floods in a few, illustrate the extremes experienced by winter wheat, while heat, blight and rust decimated the spring sown crop. With a total harvested wheat acreage nearly one-fourth larger than in 1918 the total wheat crop finally measured only 2 per cent greater. The total wheat crop of 940,957,000 bushels is with an abundance of general foodstuffs furnished an ample supply for our own necessities and with moderate economies will permit of the sale abroad of all that is needed to supply European wants.

Corn and Oats.

The volume of corn production 2,017,450,000 bushels, neither meets early extravagant expectations nor does it accord with mid-summer pessimism. It is a crop of practically pre-war proportions grown upon a pre-war acreage and furnishing a supply adequate for all domestic wants.

With the gradual improvements of shipping facilities, corn supplies from Argentina becomes increasingly available, leaving us with a production which balances well with our needs for home use.

The oats crop is our one distinct cereal disappointment, both in volume and in quality. Weather conditions were unfavorable both early and late, so that the yield was below normal and the weight and quality inferior.

By reason, however, of the stimulated war acreage the volume of the crop at 1,248,310,000 bushels is above the pre-war standard and should meet domestic requirements, but cannot be material relied upon for any unusual export demand.

Other Crops.

The other cereals are in moderate supply, less than in recent years but in excess of the volume required to meet our own needs before the war. Other food crops are ample but not excessive, necessitating careful economy in use but not threatening any failure of an ample and well balanced national dietary.

Agriculture has functioned well, during these trying times, and the American farmer is entitled to a full measure of reward for his intelligent and whole-hearted effort to measure up to the demands made upon us.

not record breaking but sufficient. The farmers of America, at a time when unrest has gripped productive labor in every other direction, and when the economic disturbances of the war have been aggravated by curtailment of production in general industries, have been the one class of labor that accepted its responsibilities and measured up to its duty. There were no slackers on the farm, no shortening of hours or of effort, no shrinking from the burdens imposed by a hungry world. The American farmer stands forth in this year of trouble, one man who with clear eyed vision and calm understanding seeing his duty has done it. Unaffected by clamor, uninfluenced by specious class propaganda, he has worked that the world might be fed, becoming the greatest steady influence in the maintenance of the social order that has been built upon 2,000 years of human experience.

Farmers Did Great Work.

The volume of farm production, when the true history of these troublous times is finally written will be hailed the factor that saves the world from post war political cataclysm.

The Woman's Club New Year's Reception was held at the home of Mrs. George S. Bergen. A reading was given by Mrs. Walter Atkins and two beautiful solos were rendered by Rev. J. A. Betcher of the M. E. church and the home orchestra played throughout the afternoon. Brick ice cream and cake was served and the afternoon was very pleasant.

Masquerade Party Given New Year's Eve — Woman's Club Gave Reception on New Year's Day—Ashland News Notes.

Ashland, Ill., Jan. 3.—Rev. C. A. Burton and Harry Camp entertained the Endeavor Society of the Christian church New Year's eve with a masquerade party. About fifty masked and their make-ups were exceedingly good. A nice programme was rendered and refreshments were served. Needless to say the evening was much enjoyed. The last number of the lecture course composed of a musical quartette from Chicago was given New Year's night at the Methodist church. They were appreciated very much by the audience.

ILLINOIS COLLEGE NOTES

Illinois College students will resume their work on the Hill Monday afternoon, January 5. Several boys and girls returned from their Christmas vacations Saturday.

A large number of contributions have come in towards the College Endowment Fund during the holidays and it is expected that President Ramelkamp will make a report on the progress of the campaign at the first chapel exercise on Tuesday.

The Pipe Organ, which was donated to the Conservatory of Music by Mrs. E. W. Blatchford of Chicago has arrived and the parts have been placed in Academy Hall. The organ will probably not be installed in the Recital Hall until some convenient vacation period.

Professor Isabel S. Smith, in addition to spending a few days at her home in Oberlin, Ohio, during the Christmas vacation attended the Student Volunteer Convention at Des Moines, Iowa, and also attended the meeting of the American Association for the Advancement of Science in St. Louis.

Professor J. H. Collon, '11, of the State Normal School at Minot, N. D., and wife were visitors on the campus Wednesday. Among the alumni and former students who returned to Jacksonville for the Christmas holidays are following: Hansel Wilson, '17, William Berryman, '17, Karl Hill, '18, Wallace Hemmings, '19, Veranz Coover, ex-20, Betty Ames, ex-21, and H. V. Carmichael, '19. Lucius S. Smith, Jr., ex-18, of Lyman, Colorado, and Dean Cochran, '18, who is attending the Colorado Agricultural School, at Fort Collins, Colorado, were also visitors on the campus during the past week.

LETTER FROM
CHAS. E. STORRS

Min River, Fukien, China, October
19, 1919.

Dear Friends of Shao-wu:
My jerky little "sparrow" boat
has ceased for the night its erratic
course up these white foaming
rapids and across the quiet still stretches toward Shao-wu. I have finished my supper of bacon and
eggs, toast, gingerbread, and cocoa. Yes, the boatman offered
me some of their rice and greens,
but I had a good Chinese meal at noon time with a preacher friend
and preferred now something from my own slender larder. Because it is Sunday we have been making only "Sabbath day's journey" a few miles up stream
to a point from which I could walk up a smiling valley, golden
with ripened rice fields, and from
mountain rim to mountain rim
millions of miles of bright sunshine piled on top of us. It is a glorious time to be out of doors.

Ask Dr. Patton, secretary of our board, if it is not. He has just been a ten day round of
about 200 miles with me through
the south and west part of our great parish and down the Kien
Ning branch of the river to Yang
Kee. From that point Mr. Kellogg is escorting him and Mrs.
Patton back to Foochow and the beaten tracks while I make my way back to our own little metropolis. Part of our journey
has been by chair, part by
"shanks mare," and part by boat.
The chair travel is the part that you home friends would find it
most difficult to fancy, for America has no such little cobbled
paths, called roads, that climb
right up, up long flights—would
they were—of stairs to the summit of separating ridges and then
sometimes with hardly a pause
for the splendid views, pitch right down into the next valley. The chair is a light bamboo affair
slung on two long stout bamboo
poles, and covered with a frame
and oiled paper. We foreigners
insist on riding with the sides up
in pleasant weather so as to enjoy the smiling country through
which we pass as well as the smiles that we create. Those of you who know Dr. Patton will not wonder that we had four men for
his carriers with a relay of two trotters.

We visited seven of our little
churches and three other points
where we had schools. We passed unmolested and unchalenged from the jurisdiction of the north to the section held by the south and back again, and found little to choose in the matter of rotten government de-
bauching the people with authorized gambling at fairs and the returning sale of opium. We both feel that except for the bright
spots of Christian evangelism
China is fast sinking away its day
of grace.

What Dr. Patton will report as the most remarkable thing of this trip I can hardly guess. I scarcely think it will be the peaceful
sleep of his missionary escort
while dogs under our noses and
far and wide made the night
sonorous, nor even the strings of firecrackers and the original
hymn of welcome sung at various points to the tune of "Precious Jewels." Maybe he will like to remember longest the five women,
all wives of earlier church
members, and one man whom he baptized and welcomed into church fellowship at one of our
evening services in the sturdy littler church of "New Bridge" close to the Kiangsi border. That is an unusual proportion of men and women, for us a happy one, for
unlike the home communities, in China more men than women are church members. The women are more conservative religiously,
and, until very recently moving
about much less freely than the
men, are the stronghold of paganism in the home; so that is a happy day when we round out
the whole family in the church fellowship. And these were very intelligent and well prepared women.

Probably, too, Dr. Patton in some story telling group will relate how we thought we had put
one over on the forces of paganism when after a many bowed
funeral feast, he preached a strong Christian sermon for the new young learner who was burying his father, deceased two years
before. It was a fine audience
of gentry and shop keepers and relatives of the family. I think they practically all got the message of how Jesus taught us to Think About Death. The family
feel sure that they are on the right track for a little grandson
has come to them since their interest in Christian things began.
They showed him to us with much pride just before we left. What was our chagrin the next day in passing the door to find the feasting and the piping still going on,
but, praise be, so far as we could find out, none of the distinctly
pagan or idolatrous performance
so characteristic of such occasions.

Dr. and Mrs. Patton's visit has been a great cheer and blessing
to us and we hope a great boon
to the work, for we trust that
some of you forthwith are going to help him and us open that new Kien Ning station, 80 miles southwest of Shao-wu with the needed men and moneys. It makes one ache to think how long
it must be at best before that
ripe harvest can be more than stated out.

At Shao-wu I am wondering how
my 94 school boys fare during
this agreeable diversion of their school master! I'm wondering
how many workmen will have to
be fired from the two building
jobs going on when I discover who has been leaving or botching
things. I'm wondering too, what
our new missionary, Miss Burr,
looks like. We hear glowing reports both from across seas and
from the Foochow friends who have met her. We just missed
her by a day at Yang Kee coming
up the river with the McClures.
Even the Chinese there had heard
of her ill fortune at Foochow in having thieves make away with
her leather satchel from the house
of a missionary. I trust Shao-wu

though we do have thieves now
and then there.

We picture Miss Burr as the first of that long list of new missionaries, more than a dozen, for whom we have been calling on the board for some time now, doctors, and preachers, and teachers,
single and double. Just write the board about them, some of you
young people who want a really hard and worth while life task. It is time that this great parish of ours, big as all Massachusetts, our own special field, had more than five families and five single women
assigned to it for its missionary work.

This report letter—I fear it is somewhat belated—will reach
many of you when the glad old Christmas season is drawing on,
and your preparations for it occupying much of your thought. Include in them, won't you, prayers and
gifts for the King in the part of His Kingdom where He is still
so little known or welcomed.
China may sin away her day of political grace, but the King's grace has only begun to come to this ancient, needy people.

With cordial Christian greet-
ings, faithfully yours,
Charles L. Storrs.

RETURNS FROM

JEFFERSON CITY
Miss Susie Lynch has arrived
home from Jefferson City, Mo.,
after spending a most pleasant
vacation with the former pastor
of Mt. Emory Baptist church, this city. Dr. E. L. Scruggs and family
are now located at Jefferson City, Mo.

While in Jefferson City, Miss
Lynch was royally entertained
both by the doctor and his family and friends. Aside from visiting
many of the business places there,
colored included, Miss Lynch also visited the State Penitentiary,
Lincoln Institute, State Normal
for colored students, and the Missouri State Capitol which was recently erected at the cost of $3,000,000.

Dr. and Mrs. Scruggs and Miss Bernice are doing wonderfully
well at Jefferson City, far better than any of them had anticipated.
They live in a desirable neighborhood, have a nicely built brick
church, and a most modern thirteen-room brick parsonage.

Aside from pastoring the largest and finest negro church in the city, also one of the best in the state, Dr. Scruggs is teaching
some of the Senior Normal classes
at the Lincoln Institute, the State Normal.

Mrs. Scruggs is taking a commercial course and post-graduate
work with the Senior Normal
classes for the purpose of securing a State's Life certificate. This Spring she and Miss Bernice will
both graduate at the same time;
she from the Senior Normal, and Bernice from the High School.

Organization for Membership Campaign—A short time ago the executive committee, of the Morgan
 County Farm Bureau, invited
 Barr Brown to act as Campaign
 Manager during the combined
 drive for members of the Morgan County Farm Bureau and the Illinois Agricultural Association.
 Mr. Brown accepted. A director
 has been named for each of the 19 different townships in Morgan County. The principal duty
 of the director will be to cooperate
 with the campaign manager in getting drivers who will give one
 day's time in driving the state
 organizers over his township.
 These organizers will work a town ship a day, or rather they will send enough men here to work
 two townships per day. The campaign will be advertised in a way
 that will let every farmer in Morgan County know what the campaign is several weeks before the drive starts. The directors and drivers have been invited in to a banquet at noon on January 8th to hear J. C. Sailor, the Assistant Secretary of the Illinois Agricultural Association, explain in detail
 the methods of carrying on the campaign.

Marketing Livestock—Adams
 County is trying a unique method
 of marketing livestock. A shipping
 association has been organized
 for the entire county. The manager has his office at the Farm Bureau headquarters. A local man, at each of the shipping
 points helps in locating the
 stock and preparing it for shipment.
 The returns all come to the
 manager at the Farm Bureau
 headquarters. During November
 this association shipped 100 car
 loads of hogs.

Scarcity of Legume Seed—Red Clover seed is scarce everywhere,
 but it is possible to get good seed
 if a man is willing to pay the price. At present the dealers and speculators are making an effort
 to get control of all the seed in sight. If they succeed in doing this we may expect unheard of prices next spring. In many cases farmers will do well to plan
 to sow sweet clover, alsike, alfalfa
 or soybeans instead of red clover.
 It will certainly pay to buy seed
 early this year.

Chinch Bug Situation—The
 rainfall for May and June, 1919,
 was above normal in all counties
 in the state heavily infested with chinch bugs. This checked the development of the first brood of this insect. The second brood,
 however, was favored by hot, dry
 weather and the increase in the numbers of this brood a little more than made up for the decrease in the first brood. The seriously infested area has not increased much over that of December, 1918. There has been a slight general increase in the numbers of chinch bugs throughout
 the south-central part of the state
 and a small area in the eastern part of Cass county, extending into
 the edges of Morgan, Sangamon
 and Menard counties, will probably show moderate damage in scattered fields.

OBITUARY

James Edwin Winter was born
 in Morgan county, Illinois, September 20, 1862 and died December 18, 1919, aged 57 years, two months and 28 days. He was the son of David and Nancy Winter
 and had seven brothers and seven sisters. Mr. Winter was preceded in death by the father, mother,
 two brothers and four sisters.
 Those remaining are William and Charles Winter of Turlock, California;
 George, Claud and Homer
 Winter of Jacksonville, Ill.; also
 Mrs. Sallie Barnhart, Mrs. Lillie
 Hellwell and Mrs. Bessie Meggin-
 son of Jacksonville, Ill.

Mr. Winter received his education
 in the public schools of Morgan
 county, Illinois, making good
 use of every opportunity for education.

On February 26, 1889, Mr.
 Winter was united in marriage to Mary Caroline Lewis in Jacksonville,
 Illinois and came to Hamilton
 county soon afterward locating
 on the farm where he lived
 until his death.

To their union were born six
 children of which an infant son
 and Mabel May passed away in childhood. Roy, Francis and Marie are at home and Mrs.
 Emma Robinson and her one
 year old son remain with the
 mother to mourn their loss.

It was a shock to the community
 when the death of Mr. Winter
 was announced for he had many friends, not only among his neighbors but in Aurora, where he was associated in business interests. Mr. Winter lived in the community of the Prairie Gem
 U. P. church and was one of its supporters, altho not a member.
 His health had been impaired for
 some time and hardening of the arteries had set in. Few realized
 the full seriousness of his condition
 until he was stricken Thursday
 morning December 18, 1919.

The funeral service was held in
 the Aurora United Brethren church
 Sunday afternoon, December 21st,
 in charge of Rev. H. H. Heberly,
 assisted by Rev. Franklin Hunt.

The special music was furnished
 by members of the Prairie
 Gem choir and was very appropriate.
 A large number of friends filled
 the church. Burial was in the Aurora cemetery.

GRACE CHAPEL

There was an all day community meeting held at the Chapel
 New Year's day.

In the morning a shooting
 match was the main entertainment for the men and boys.

The ladies prepared a fine dinner which was partaken of by all present at the noon hour.

This being the date for Willing Workers Society to meet, they gave several very interesting
 readings and music which passed
 the time away most pleasantly

afternoon.

The hour for departure came
 all to soon, and all present wished

for many more such happy community meetings during the coming New Year.

Announcing a New Paige Motor

For three years the Paige engineers have been devoting their efforts to the development of a New Six-cylinder motor. With every facility for research and experiment, these men have worked with one definite object in mind—the production of the most efficient power plant in the world.

That motor is now an accomplished fact. It has passed from the laboratory to the road and there it has been tested mercilessly and continuously. It has been subjected to every stress and strain that brutal driving might suggest, but in each instance it has emerged with a flawless record.

These long, exhaustive tests have convinced us that the new Paige Motor is indeed the most efficient of all light sixes. In economy of operation, hill climbing ability, acceleration and flexibility it has far surpassed any power plant developed by this organization.

Best of all it is an original Paige product—conceived by Paige engineers and built by Paige mechanics in the Paige shops. In it we have incorporated every approved feature that is known to automotive engineering.

In brief, it represents the sum total of current engineering knowledge. It expresses accurately and completely the tremendous strides of scientific development during the entire war period. It is a strictly modern achievement—a product of the combined genius of two continents.

A New Paige Car

All road shocks and jars are immediately absorbed in the velvety spring suspension.

There is no danger of sway or "side slip" no matter what the speed may be, for every ounce of weight in the chassis is distributed with scientific precision.

Inside the car there is body room, leg room and elbow room for five adult passengers to travel in luxurious comfort.

The upholstering is soft and inviting—the equipment and general appointments throughout are the best that money can buy.

So far as the design is concerned, you of course know what to expect, for this is "The Most Beautiful Car in America."

The "Glenbrook" model is our latest achievement. We merely ask you to see it—ride in it—drive it and form your own opinion. We shall be quite content to abide by the result.

The CHENEEY
You Should Hear a Piano
Record on The Cheney

The perfection of Cheney tones is easily demonstrated with a piano record. No more exacting test could be found.

Its fidelity to the very timbre of piano tone is unquestioned—you recognize the remarkable improvement over ordinary reproductions immediately. So also with vocal, instrumental and orchestral selections. And like a rare violin, Cheney Tones grow richer, mellower with time. "The Longer You Play It, The Sweeter It Grows."

"ONLY ONE THING BREAKS MY COLD!"

"That's Dr. King's New Discovery for fifty years
a cold-breaker!"

NOTHING but sustained quality
and unflinching effectiveness can arouse such enthusiasm. Nothing
but sure relief from stubborn
old colds and enraging new ones,
grippe, throat-tearing coughs, and croup could have made Dr. King's New Discovery the nationally popular
and standard remedy it is today.
Fifty years old and always reliable.
Good for the whole family.
A bottle in the medicine cabinet
means a short-lived cold or cough.
60c. and $1.20. All druggists.

Stubborn Bowels Tamed

Positive in action, yet natural,
comfortable, pleasant, Dr. King's New Life Pills are a boon to bowels
that need assistance. They eliminate fermenting waste and put the system in normal shape. All drugists—25c. a bottle.

ILLINOIS FOLKS TELL OF EXPERIENCE

Report, Ill.—"I can highly recommend Dr. Pierce's medicines. While I have taken some of nearly all of these medicines at different times and they always were first-class, I can speak
especially well of the 'Favorite Prescription.' I have taken it as a special woman's tonic and it was excellent.
For several years I was in very poor health. I had doctor for some time
without results and I was in a miserable
state when I decided to write to Dr.
Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.,
or advise concerning my ailments.

"I am sure I owe my good health
today to Dr. Pierce, and perhaps my wife, and I cannot say enough in praise
of his skill and also his grand medicines.
Mrs. E. SCOVILL, 329 Elm St.

Galena, Ill.—"Some years ago I was afflicted with catarrh and liver trouble.
My blood was impoverished and an abscess formed over my liver. I was in a serious condition when my husband brought me a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, a vial of Pleasant Pellets and a package of Dr.
Sage's Catarrh Remedy. My improvement was noticeable from the very start
but I took seven bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery' so as to be cured and restored to perfect health.

"My sister also had a most satisfactory experience with the 'Discovery' which
she took for an asthmatic condition.
Two bottles of it absolutely cured her of asthma and for thirty-five years afterwards she continued praising 'Golden Medical Discovery' and recommending it to persons afflicted with asthma or bronchial affections."—Mrs. HATTY MOORE, 518 Dewey Ave.
